Gift of Hope Spring Fundraiser Is A Success

Forsyth, MO, April 13, 2010 – Gift of Hope, Inc., a 501(c)(3) not for profit organization, hosted a Spring Bowl a Thon fundraiser on April 11th at 2pm at Dogwood Lanes in Branson.

There were over 50 children who bowled in the event.

“Area businesses pledged sponsorships and made generous donations in support of this fundraiser. It was so much fun and so many children from area church youth groups, Forsyth School and Hollister School had a blast bowling.” Meghan Connell, Gift of Hope Director said.

Special thanks to the sponsors of the event: National Enzyme Company, Best Buy in Branson, Wyndham Vacation Ownership, Connell Insurance, Dogwood Lanes Bowling Alley, Branson Tourism Center, Branson Airport, ServiceMaster, Victorian Heart Company, Mac McGregor with Edward Jones Investments, Handy Haydon with Edward Jones Investments, The Track Family Fun Parks, Dixie Stampede, Andy’s Frozen Custard, Sight and Sound Theater, Clay Cooper Theatre, Ripley’s Believe It or Not!, Ride the Ducks, Titanic, Target and IMAX.

All of the funds raised go to the programs that Gift of Hope coordinates for the children and families in need in Taney County.
